

“Yes, I am!” 1D heartthrob denies claims of secret romance with KUWTK star Kendall Jenner

Harry Styles quashes Kendall Jenner rumours as he tells the world he is in fact single on Good Morning America.

Since being first spotted with the brunette exiting a restaurant in West Hollywood, the curly haired singer has been romantically linked to her and was asked the same question that many of his young fans were dying to know the answer to – are you still available. The star raised his hand with a confident grin when questioned with his band mates to which the directioners of New York replied with a series of deafening screams.

The 1D boys were in central Park performing tracks from their latest album, ‘Midnight Memories’ which will also feature in the band’s stadium tour, ‘Where We Are’ in the summer.
