Feast of Our Lady of Walsingham

Jesus, today is the feast day of your Mother, Our Lady of Walsingham. This day remembers when Mary appeared by apparition here in England.

May we, like Mary, seek to say yes to your plan for our lives, understanding that you are always with us and want only the best for us. May we, like Mary, strive for the Church to be alive and vibrant here in England again. May it be a place of joy, and love, and light.

We ask for our Mother Mary to join us in prayer today, as we pray together ... Hail Mary...

Amen

Tuesday 25th September

Weekday in Ordinary Time

Jesus, in today's Gospel you use your Mother and the disciples as examples of faith in action.

May we like them not only hear Your Word, but may we live it. Help us to be Christians who act in a way that reflects you and your love and justice, just as your mother and the apostles did.

Amen.

'MY MOTHER AND BROTHERS ARE
THOSE WHO HEAR THE WORD OF GOD AND ACT ON IT.'

Today's Gospel – Luke 8:19-21

The mother and the brothers of Jesus came looking for him, but they could not get to him because of the crowd. He was told, 'Your mother and brothers are standing outside and want to see you.' But he said in answer, 'My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and put it into practice.'

Weekday in Ordinary Time

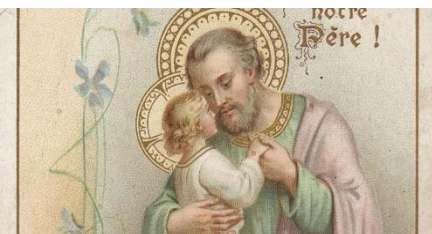

Today is the European Day of Languages. We are going to pray in either Spanish OR French.

Please ask 1 student who either studies/speaks French or Spanish.
The prayer is the Lord's Prayer.

Merci OR Gracias Miss McGovern

En nombre de Padre, de Hijo y de espíritu santo.

Padre nuestro,
que estás en el cielo.
Santificado sea tu nombre.
Venga tu reino.

Hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos
ofenden.

No nos dejes caer en tentación y líbranos del mal.
Amén.

Au nom du père et du fils et du saint esprit

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre comme au ciel.

Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.
Pardonne-nous nos offenses
Comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés.
Et ne nous soumets pas à la tentation,
mais délivre-nous du mal,
car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,
la puissance et la gloire, aux siècles des siècles.
Amen

Thursday 27th September

Feast of St. Vincent de Paul

Jesus, today we remember your faithful servant, St. Vincent de Paul who spoke always of love, service, and charity. May we like him strive to always serve you and those around us. May we think today, what can I do to assist my peers? What can I do to better love my friends and family? And what can I do to more generously serve You? May we today step out in selflessness to make the days of all the people we come into contact with better.

Amen.

Friday 28th September

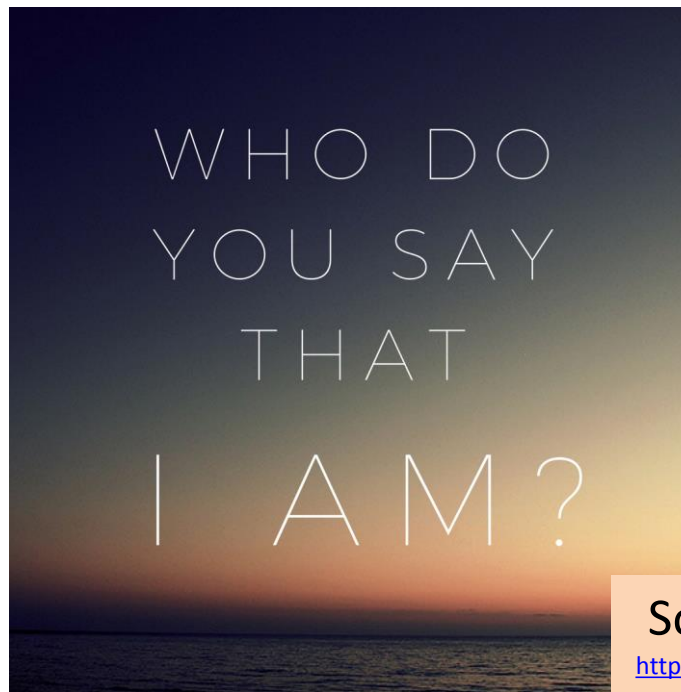

Weekday in Ordinary Time

Jesus, in today's Gospel you ask the disciples (and us!) one of the most important questions of our faith (and our lives) – 'Who do you say that I am?'

Through our faith, we are called to build an intimate and deeply personal relationship with you – but how are we to do this if we don't even know who you are??? Just like with our other friends, we need to first get to know you. Is Jesus just a historical figure to us? Is he our Saviour? Is he our King? Our brother and friend?

Lord, today, let us ponder who you are to us, and take the time to think about all the ways we can get to know you better.

Amen.

Today's Gospel – Luke 9:1-6

One day when Jesus was praying alone in the presence of his disciples he put this question to them, 'Who do the crowds say I am?' And they answered, 'John the Baptist; others Elijah; and others say one of the ancient prophets come back to life.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' It was Peter who spoke up. 'The Christ of God' he said. But he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone anything about this.

'The Son of Man' he said 'is destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes and to be put to death, and to be raised up on the third day.'
